DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1959, wish to dedicate the 1959 Talisman to Mrs. Dorothy Heidlebaugh.

Mrs. Heidlebaugh was our sponsor during our senior year. She teaches Home Economics, American History, and English 7.

Mrs. Heidlebaugh has been a great help in everything. We hope this small deed will repay her for all of her kindness, and show our appreciation for her help.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SEATED: Minor Davies. STANDING: Edwin Prichard, Robert Wallick, Paul Jones, Richard Welker, David Wayne Morris.

Dear Graduate:

I congratulate you on your graduation and hope that you will succeed in your chosen field.

I know that you know that education does not end with your formal schooling. Life, your job or profession, your family and social relationship are the greatest educators. Wisdom grows with experience, and experience increases after school is over.

I trust that York School has made your thinking more sound, and you more devoted to your God and your country.

Sincerely,

A. W. Fishbaugh

OUR CLASS HISTORY

Cast - Class of 1959

Setting - York Local School

Eight of us started to school in 1947 with a class of 14 pupils and Mrs. Mildred Leis as our teacher. In the third grade Rees Davies came to York. Mrs. Eva Zinn was our second and third grade teacher. The second, third, and fourth grades were the biggest for us with 15 pupils.

Mrs. Carmella Heffner taught us in the fourth grade, Mrs. Jane Britton and Mrs. Helen Fryer in the fifth. Richard Davies joined the class in the sixth grade. Mrs. Helen Fryer was again our teacher in the sixth grade. As seventh graders we were sponsored by Mrs. Murial Heath and Mrs. Hilda Hippensteele.

In the eighth grade we were runner up in the interclass basketball tournament. This year our sponsors were the same as last. In the Freshman year Jack Brincefield entered our class. We were interclass champs that year, and also for the next three years. Our sponsor this year was Mrs. Helen Hayes.

In our sophomore year we sponsored a carnival with the help of the P.T.A. Mrs. Irmgard George was our sponsor. We also served the Valentine Dinner in our sophomore year.

In our junior year we presented "The Girl Next Door" as our junior class play. Mr. John Allen directed the play and he also was our sponsor. The high light of our junior year was the Prom. We served the Christmas Dinner this year.

Entering our senior year with Mrs. Dorthy Heidlebaugh as our sponsor we presented "Take it Easy" as our class play. We served the Thanksgiving Dinner this year. This year we worked especially hard toward our goal in getting enough money to go on our class trip.

We finished our senior year with the Prom, graduation, and our long-awaited trip.

The eight members of our class who have attended York all of their twelve years are: Don Wallick, Terry Pollock, Doyce Rice, Dick Perez, Joyce Beerman, Louise Painter, Dick Bolton, and Dan Evans.
